THE NATIONAL CONGRESS.

NINE PAGES OF THE TARIFF BILL DISPOSED OF.

Senator Carlisle Shows Up Some Interesting Facts—Congressman Mason Goes For the Postoffice Department.

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 22.—The Senate considered the tariff bill all day. Numerous amendments offered by Senators McPherson, Vest and Carlisle to reduce duties were all voted down.

Senator Carlisle took a prominent part in the debate, producing price lists of manufacturers to show that they were selling their goods in foreign countries at lesser rates than they charged American consumers. At six o'clock after disposing of nine pages of the bill, the Senate, after a short executive session adjourned.

House.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The House today concurred in about half of the Senate amendments to the river and harbor bill and the balance were left for consideration to-morrow.

Mr. Mason, of Illinois, rising to a question of privilege, said that some days ago a resolution had been adopted alleging that a certain gentleman had been fraudulently using the mails to create a sentiment in favor of the Conger land bill and calling on the post office department for information on the subject. The resolution had been sent to the postoffice department with the request that the papers, in regard to the matter, be transmitted promptly. This had not been done. He had called at the department three or four times and been informed that probably the papers would not be sent up until Saturday night. Then they would be of no use, as the previous question on the bill was ordered at four o'clock to-morrow. His charge was brought to bear upon a department of the government to retain certain papers in its possession. Influence, social or political, had been brought to bear to withhold from the members of the House information in regard to pending legislation.

The chief clerk of the postoffice department had denied him access to the papers for the purpose of making copies of them for use in debate. He wanted the facts brought before the House, and he moved that a committee of three members be appointed to wait upon the Postmaster-General, and ask that the papers be furnished in time to be used in the debate.

Before any action was taken the House took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be for the consideration of private pension bills.

AN "ORDER OF BUSINESS."

The Tariff Debate to Close on the 30th—A Final Vote by September 5th—Provided the Resolution Passes.

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The conference committee appointed at last night's meeting of Republican Senators (Messrs. Hear, Allison, Evans, Spooner, Plumb, Hale and Allen), met this afternoon in the room of the committee on the judiciary, and put into form the resolution establishing an order of business which it is proposed to adopt. The resolution provides for closing debate on the tariff bill August 30th (the understanding being that a final vote will be had by September 5th). The measures mentioned in the Order resolution (including the proposed food and lottery bills) are to be disposed of before adjournment. The election bill is to be made a special order for the first Monday in December, the day when Congress convenes, with the understanding that a vote on it is to be ordered not later than December 20th. This resolution is to be circulated among the Republican Senators, and when a majority of the Senate from the Republican side have signed it, it is to be laid before the Senate formally for adoption. There is little doubt that the requisite Senators will be had. The Senators who have been demanding a change in the rules regard the adoption of this resolution as a substantial victory, as it will require a change in the rules to permit the previous question to be ordered on the election bill, December 20th.

TELEGRAPHIC FLASHES.

(By United Press.)
BALTIMORE, Aug. 22.—The remains of the late theatrical manager, Patrick Harris, arrived here from Bay Shore, L. I., last night. They were accompanied by his widow and a number of relatives and friends. The story that Mr. Harris committed suicide, instead of dying of apoplexy, is denied by Mrs. Harris.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 22.—Henderson, the negro who so brutally murdered Gilbert Satterwhite, near Midway last Monday night, was taken from the Woodford county jail by a masked mob about three o'clock yesterday morning and hanged to a tree. The negroes of Versailles and Midway are very much excited over the lynching, and further trouble is feared.

PARIS, Aug. 22.—St. Cloud, one of the suburbs of this city, was struck by a violent cyclone to day. Twenty houses were wrecked, most of the occupants being buried in the debris. Already seven dead bodies have been taken out and as several persons are missing the list of dead will no doubt be further increased.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—The papers are congratulating Lord Salisbury upon the successful settlement of the dispute between England and Portugal which at one time threatened to result in war.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 22.—The 500 or 800 people who live in eastern Arapahoe county, Colorado, near the Kansas line, are in a state bordering on starvation.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 22.—Dr. W. A. Hopkins, health officer of Ashtabula, calls attention to the existence of Texas fever in that neighborhood.

WINSTON-SALEM.

How Barber "Bamboozled" Settles—Passenger Train to Madison—Winston-Salem Claiming to be the Second City in the State.

(Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.)
WINSTON, Aug. 22.—Yesterday a number of our legal brethren returned from Surry court, and they bear the glad tidings that Barber literally wore Settles out in the joint discussion there. These two nominees for the Solicitorship are doing some hard fighting. By many it was thought it would be a difficult matter for the Democrats of this district to find a man that could beat Settles on the stump. One of our most prominent lawyers who attended the above named court and heard the discussion between the two candidates declare that Barber fairly "bamboozled" Settles, and the people yelled and cheered him on. The Democratic goose hung high and "Baldy" Williams was there to help Barber jerk him higher. The old Seventh Judicial and Fifth Congressional districts are all right. Let the ball roll on!

Additional particulars were learned to-day concerning the recent serious cutting affair which happened in a church in Davie county last Sunday. The two men who fought had whiskey in them, and they began fussing over a horse race which took place on court week at Mocksville last fall. Doubtful cut Smith dreadfully on the jaw and neck and then skipped the county. He passed through this place on his trip to parts unknown, but there being no telegraph lines connecting Mocksville and Winston, the police were not notified in time to capture him.

The first regular scheduled passenger train left here for Madison this morning at seven o'clock. The depot at the latter place is now finished and is exceedingly tasty. The iron horse keeps pushing its way on toward the Virginia line which it is expected to reach by October 15th.

Speaking of Winston's good men, I met one yesterday as he came down Cherry street. He was on his way to the place where his business capacity is thoroughly tested—a banking house. With a cigar gracefully placed in the left corner of his mouth and his studious face turned down to meditate over the responsibilities that rest so heavily upon him, one could well guess that he was a member of that aggressive army of men that have done much for the progressive twin cities. He is sedate, studious, a walking encyclopedia of financial knowledge, a good Methodist, although Presbyterians assist in decorating his face. He is small of stature, loud of influence and exceedingly medium sized when a scheme with a doubtful ending is proposed. Summing him up he is a prince of Winstonians, and the quick, yet steady step impresses the stranger with the idea that his history, though as yet short, is the history of Winston in her days of greatest prosperity.

To-day your correspondent enquired of one of our census enumerators, who is acquainted with figures, whether or not it were safe to say that Winston-Salem had won the second place in the State census roll. "Yes," he replied, "I do not know the exact figures, but already they show that the Twin-City is ahead of all the cities of the State, with the single exception of Wilmington." If you were to visit us just at this time and see the substantial signs of our prosperity, we are certain that they would join with us in saying that the next census will place us first.

Weldon Will Play Raleigh and Challenge Winston.

(Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.)
WELDON, N. C., August 20th.—The game of baseball, at Enfield yesterday, between Enfield and Weldon, resulted in another victory for Weldon. Score, 12 to 11.

At the conclusion of the eighth inning the score stood, Enfield 11, Weldon 7. This is Weldon's seventh engagement and her team has not been defeated. Arrangements are being made to play in Raleigh September 4th.

Is Winston open to engagements?
Population of Fayetteville and Wilmington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The census office to-day announced the population of two North Carolina cities as follows: Fayetteville, 4,220, increase during the past decade of 21.09 per cent. Wilmington, 20,088, increase 2,658, or 15.32 per cent.

The Hickory Bank Failure.
(Press and Carolinian.)
Nothing definite can now be stated as to the condition of the Bank of Hickory. Mr. O. D. Davis, an expert book-keeper from Salisbury, is at work on the books, and says it will take some days to ascertain the financial status. So far as is yet known there is hope that the loss will not be very heavy.

THE STRIKES.

WHAT THE K. OF L. AND THE BROTHERHOOD ARE DOING.

Not Much Comfort From The Engineers—Strikes at the Big Four Road and at Foreign Mines.

(By United Press.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Just what the general executive board of the Knights of Labor will do to-day is difficult to surmise. A report was prevalent that, possibly, before long the mechanics along the line of the New York Central & Hudson River railroad would be ordered out. Upon this point Mr. Webb was questioned and said: "Anticipating some ten days ago that by allowing the men employed in our various shops to remain, I was furnishing ammunition to the Knights, I at once ordered the shops to be closed and directed that only enough help be retained to perform the actual necessary repairs that are required each day. At the present time we have fully 6000 cars in course of construction at West Albany and there 1200 were laid off. If the mechanics are ordered to stop work by the federation, we are fully prepared to meet the emergency and as the number of men that would be affected is comparatively small their places would be rapidly filled."

At noon to-day Commissioner Donovan, of the board of arbitration, called on Mr. Webb, and the two gentlemen had a consultation. Mr. Donovan will have a conference at half past three with Mr. Powderly at the Murray Hill Hotel, and will then make public the result of both interviews. To-morrow the State board of arbitration will meet at Albany and consider what step they can take toward effecting a settlement of the trouble.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—A special to the Post from Cleveland, Ohio, says: "An evening Post correspondent called upon Mr. P. M. Arthur, Grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Engineers, at his Euclid Avenue office this morning, and asked him what he intended to do in the matter of Mr. Powderly's letter, published to-day."

"I have nothing to say about it. If Mr. Powderly writes me a letter on that or any other subject, it will be promptly answered. It ought not to be necessary for anybody to inquire how the Brotherhood of Engineers stands in regard to strikes. That has been declared in print and otherwise, hundreds of times."

Mr. Arthur spoke with great deliberation and apparently endeavored to conceal any feeling one way or the other he may have in regard to the strike, and the course of the engineers in regard thereto. But in spite of this it was not difficult to see from his manner that Mr. Powderly need not look for much aid or comfort from the engineers.

Continuing, Mr. Arthur said: "You may state—and I know no way of putting it stronger—that we are minding our business, and will continue to do so. The Order will take no official cognizance of the Central trouble unless complaints come from our members. Thus far not a single complaint has been made by the engineers, so we have not taken any step in the matter."

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 22.—All indications here point to a strike of 4,000 men on the St. Louis division of the Big Four road. The men are all waiting for the word and seem to understand that it will be given shortly.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 22.—The strike in the Boerlinge district is spreading. To-day 3,500 miners quit work, making a total thus far of 11,500 men on strike in the district.

ANOTHER RAIL DISASTER.

A Train Dashes Down a Mountain and Kills Six People.

(By United Press.)
READING, Pa., Aug. 22.—A runaway car on the Mount Penn Gravity railroad, which ascends the mountain near here dashed down a declivity at 11 o'clock this morning, killing six persons and wounding many others. The accident occurred at the horse shoe bend the second grove from the city, while the train was coming down by Gravity. The killed as far as learned are: Edgar Levan, lawyer, Miss Holman, milliner, Reading; and Miss Geyer, of Allentown.

It is rumored that there are other fatalities and quite a number are injured. It is said that the trouble occurred over the brake not working.

War Again Imminent.

(By United Press.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Telegrams from San Salvador say the propositions for peace made by the diplomatic corps to Provisional President Ezeta, imply the abandonment of the autonomy and independence of Salvador. Hostilities which have been suspended up to this time are liable to be resumed at any time, as Ezeta has declared that he will not submit to the dictation of President Barillas, and it is currently reported that he has definitely decided to reject the proposed treaty.

A Brakeman's Mishap.

(Special to STATE CHRONICLE.)
MARION, N. C., Aug. 22.—A negro brakeman while putting on brakes on the west bound freight train this afternoon at Nebo, on the Western North Carolina road, twisted off the brake wheel and was thrown from the car crushing his skull. He is seriously injured.

OVER $100 PER ACRE.

Made by Tilling Wake County Soil—How it is Done—Pleasure With Profit.

THE CHRONICLE has frequently heard Raleigh people, who have been off on tours of various kinds, tell about what they have seen in their travels. They have frequently told of places where from $50.00 to $75.00 net per acre could be made by tilling the soil. Many of these tourists, while abroad, learn more about foreign communities than they know about their own.

What, for instance, would the average Raleigh citizen say if he should go to California and learn that $100 per acre could be made there by grape growing? This very thing has been done around Raleigh for several years past, though few people have found it out.

In most places where land can be made to yield $100 per acre at anything, that land can barely be bought for less than $500 per acre; but in Wake county and around Raleigh, it can be bought very much cheaper and will yield the same profit.

To show what can be done in this section, the CHRONICLE prints with pleasure a short paper by Capt. E. P. Williamson, of this city, giving his experience and results in grape growing. It was written by request and was read at the recent Mt. Holly Fair.

MR. J. VAN LINDLEY, PRES'T. N. C. STATE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.
As requested by your Secretary I give below my experience in growing grapes:

In the year 1885 I planted on a gravelly top soil, with clay subsoil, four acres in grape vines—2000 lives and 1000 Champions, they being the two earliest known reliable varieties.

Before planting, the land was deeply and well prepared, then harrowed out and the vines planted eight feet apart each way. This was done in February. In April I planted two rows of cotton between the grape vines, the rows all running the same way. I cultivated grapes and cotton alike, both growing well. In 1886 I planted only one row of cotton between the grape vines, getting again a fine growth of vines and cotton. I applied 300 pounds of Ammoniated Guano to the acre each year.

I planted no cotton in the year 1887, but gave all the land to the vines. In February I sowed 500 pounds of kahlit and super phosphate combined on each acre, and plowed the land both ways close and deep, with one horse. After that I cultivated and kept the vines clear of grass and weeds with cotton sweeps, which means shallow cultivation, and is, according to my judgment, the right way. About the middle of May I sowed on each acre 500 pounds of Raleigh Standard Guano, and cultivated it in with sweeps, and then discontinued cultivation.

Since 1887, when I gathered my first crop of grapes, I have fertilized and cultivated the same way, getting results as follows:

1887	14,995	pounds.
1888	17,948	"
1889	22,026	"

Making 54,969 pounds for the three years, which were sold to net me above all the expenses of the cultivation, fertilizing, packaging, shipping, selling, etc., $1,250.00, being $112.26 per acre for three years, or an average of $103.06 per acre each year.

My crop for 1890 has turned out as well or better.

The plague of Speaker Reed's life during the present Congress has been Congressman Rogers, of Arkansas, who has stood up in the House, time and again, and denounced him for his tyranny and acts of usurpation as no speaker was ever denounced before in the history of the American Congress. One of his recent utterances—speaking of the attitude of the people of the country toward Reed—was this: "May I tell you, Mr. Speaker, that they curse you, and despise you, and hate you, and when you are assailed in private and in public they are silent." ## THE YOUNG DEMOCRACY.

A CALL TO MEET AND ORGANIZE FOR WORK.

The Purpose is to Win a Democratic Victory for Wake County in 1890—Let All Unite.

It being recognized by the State Democratic Executive Committee that the past work of the Young Men's Democratic clubs aided very greatly in the success of the Democratic victories, wherever gained, and urgently requesting the prompt reorganization of all the clubs of the last campaign and the organization of new clubs for active work in the coming campaign; and in pursuance of a call from the President of the North Carolina Association of Democratic Clubs, a meeting of the young Democracy of Raleigh township was held at the Mayor's office, Thursday night, August 21st, 1890, at which the undersigned were constituted a committee to draft a call for a meeting to be held on Thursday night, August 28th at 8 o'clock at the Mayor's office for the reorganization of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Raleigh.

It is therefore requested that every young Democratic voter of Raleigh township, whether a member or not of this club, will attend a meeting to be held at the Mayor's office, Thursday, August 28th, at 8 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of reorganization of, and putting the Young Men's Democratic club of Raleigh, upon a firm working basis.

It is also the earnest desire of this committee, that the young Democrats in each township in Wake county, reorganize their old clubs, and organize new ones, and at once put themselves in communication with this club, that we may all unite in a determined and united effort to redeem Wake county, and by such combined determination carry the banner of Democracy to success.

Such action on the part of the young Democrats of the county will assure us a grand Democratic victory in November, and cause our county to take her place in the list of Democratic counties of the State.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

Congressman Ewart of the Ninth District has been re-nominated by the Republicans.

Geo. H. Smathers, Esq., of Waynesville, is the Republican nominee for Solicitor of the 12th district.

The Swain County Herald proposes Cleveland and Polk as the Democratic nominees for President and Vice-President, 1892.

The Republican Executive Committee of the First district has nominated C. C. Pool, of Elizabeth City for Solicitor and C. M. Bernard, of Pitt for Congress.

The Tarboro Banner favors Mr. Elias Carr of Edgecombe, or Mr. Yancey T. Ormond, of Greensboro, for Congress in the second district. It says: "Mr. Ormond is a farmer, has led the Democrats in his county against forlorn hopes, has the confidence and esteem of his people, is free from demagoguery, is a consistent Allianceman and a true Democrat. As a candidate, he would harmonize discordant elements, and prove a strong man."

There will be a convention of the Democrats of the Tenth Judicial District at Lenoir, Aug. 23rd, to settle the matter of the nomination of a Solicitor. At the convention Mr. W. C. Newland was declared the nominee. Afterwards it was discovered that McDowell which had cast 22 votes was entitled to 20 votes. As Mr. Newland was nominated by a fraction of a vote, this discovery showed that Mr. W. B. Council was the nominee, and Mr. Newland honorably tendered his nomination to Mr. Council. He would not accept and so the convention has been called to meet again to determine the question.

A DOUBLE HANGING.

Resulting from the Mahone Campaign in Virginia—Two More Hangings to Follow.

(By United Press.)
DANVILLE, Va., August 22.—George Early and Byrd Woods were hanged at Rocky Mount, in Franklin county to-day for arson committed in October last. During the gubernatorial campaign, Gen. Mahone spoke at Rocky Mount, and the party managers endeavored to procure a large tobacco warehouse for him to speak in, but the owners refused to allow the house to be used for that purpose. A week later Lieutenant-Governor Massey spoke in the house, and that night it was burned. The flames spread to other houses and the business part of the town was destroyed. It was shown that four negroes, George Early, Byrd Woods, Wm. Brown and Nannie Woods set fire to the house because of their indignation at the refusal of the owners to permit the Republican meeting therein.

They were convicted and sentenced to be hanged—Early and Woods to-day, and Brown and the woman on the 19th of September. All the preparations for to-day's execution having been completed, Early and Woods were brought from their cells at 10:15 a. m., and the death warrant read to them.

Both made short talks but neither made a confession. Woods said his own race had lied on him and brought him to the gallows, but he was innocent. Early talked only five minutes and said he had on the trial but had been forgiven. Both said they were prepared to die and would soon be in glory.
